Truffle-hunting in the hearth of Istria – October 11-14, 2012

During this four-day culinary get-away you will embark into the fascinating and sumptuous world of the white and black truffle, the most noble and pricey mushroom in the world.

You will be taken into the heart of Istria where you will follow the steps of a master truffle-hunter and his highly trained dogs to learn some of the secrets and the legends behind the ancient tradition of truffle-hunting.

Chef Kristijan Kozmić will teach you how to prepare homemade gnocchi and pasta, fresh omelet and other Mediterranean dishes made with the fine white and black truffles and other fresh seasonal local produce. Other daily activities have been coordinated including wine and olive oil tastings, guided tours of the towns of Motovun and Opatija and a gala dinner at Villa Astra in Lovran.

A complete itinerary of the activities is available at www.CarmenCuisineandTravel.com.
